About African Financial & Economic Data

African Financial & Economic Data (AFED) provides definitive financial and economic intelligence on all 54 African economies and their financial markets.

Good decisions depend on Good data

AFED is a comprehensive, consolidated and above all clear service providing interested parties in African countries with the detailed financial and economic information they need to make good political, financial, strategic and investment decisions.

The information can be used for Research and Analytics

- Thought Leadership and Opinion
- Risk Assessment
- Due Diligence
- Collaborative and Outreach Projects
- Strategy and Capability Building
- Fund Management
- M&A Activity
- Commercial Investments

AFED gathers all the data, translates documents where necessary and more importantly puts everything together in a standardized format to provide researchers with direct access to the data they need.

All data is updated daily and available under 3 packages:

- Data Hub
- Country Profile
- Sector Focus

Packages

1. Data Hub

The Data Hub allows users to query each of the available seven datasets individually, produce time series analysis, extract the customised reports and easily commingle datasets.

1.1 Economic Data

Access +26.5 million data records for +50,000 key economic and financial data indicators.

AFED aggregates macroeconomic data primarily from local sources into one data platform. In addition, there is also access to international and regional sources.

There are indicators published as soon as they become available and often with several sources, thus giving the client the choice of which sources to use.

The data is reported as published by the source and categorized into 13 main groups to enable quick and easy access to specific data points:

- National Accounts
- Government Finance
- Money & Banking
- Inflation, Prices & Wages
- Balance of Payments & Trade
- Total Debt: Domestic & External
- Business & Industry
- Resources & Energy
- Employment, Income & Poverty
- Politics, Government & Society
- Population & Health
- Education
- Geography & Environment

Customize and export reports based on country or topic of interest and easily compare sources. Display data visually using sophisticated charting functionality.

1.2 Exchange Rates

Monitor daily market exchange rates and retrieve historical daily rates dating back to 1st January 1999.

1.3 Interest Rates

Monitor daily interest rates issued by African countries and easily retrieve any of the 62 interest rates based on country, rate type, frequency and year.

1.4 Fixed Income

Get direct access to static data outlining key terms and conditions, including interest and maturity details, for African debt securities.

Use the online service to easily retrieve specific securities or a list of securities based on criteria such as issuer, country of incorporation, coupon rate, maturity date, and security type. Once a debt security has been priced, easily access the full closing pricing history... in just one click.

1.5 Closing Prices

Get direct access to both official equity and bond pricing data for all securities traded in any of the 26 African securities exchanges covered. In addition, access adjusted pricing data from 18 African stock exchanges.

Easily look for closing prices at country or exchange level or alternatively search for a specific security. Easily download the complete closing pricing history of any security covered by the service. For most exchanges, pricing history is available back to January 2007.

Use the charting feature to get a clear overview of closing pricing history for a specific security and for any selected time frame.

1.6 Stock Indices

Access and view the current and historical values of all 199 exchange-listed indices from every African stock exchange.

Easily download or chart the complete closing pricing history of any Stock Indices covered by the service. For some Indices, pricing history is available back to January 2007.

1.7 Calendars

Use the Events Calendar dataset to keep up-to-date with forthcoming:

- Public Holidays

Indicates when banks, stock exchanges and other financial institutions are closed for business.

- Economic Calendar

Provides the customer with expected and confirmed releases on local and international sources as well as release AFED publish dates.

- Bond Auctions

Lists future auctions dates for all government debt securities along with announcements and results data.

Search calendars by country or date range. Add events you are interested in to a watch list. Receive email alerts when the status of an event changes.

2. Country Profile

Whether you are interested in South Africa, Algeria or Rwanda, the Country Profile series provides in-depth coverage of the African country of your choice.

Gain Valuable Insights about any African countries

The Country Profile package provides direct access to the latest economic data for each of the 54 African countries. From conventional indicators such as GDP Growth, Domestic and External Debt to country specific ones, Country Profile provides you with straightforward access to ± 3,000 key economic data indicators for your country of interest.

We have selected what we believe are the most pertinent indicators, coming from the most reliable sources, for each of the following 13 categories:

- National Accounts
- Government Finance
- Money and Banking
- Inflation, Prices and Wages
- Balance of Payments and Trade
- Total Debt: Domestic and External
- Politics, Government & Society
- Business & Industry
- Resources & Energy
- Employment, Income & Poverty
- Population & Health
- Education
- Geography & Environment

The selection is the same for every country and has a major emphasis on local sources with data going back to 2000. Depending on the source, data availability may vary. AFED focuses on Monthly, Quarterly and Annual updates

Finally, this package gives also access to the Calendar, Exchange and Interest rates datasets.

3. Sector Focus

The Sector Focus package allows users access to economic and financial indicators for their sector of interest. AFED currently covers 15 sectors:

- Agriculture, Fishing & Farming
- Automotive & Transportation
- Education
- Employment, Income & Poverty
- Energy
- Environment & Infrastructure
- Financial Sector
- Governance, Politics and Violence
- Health & Pharmaceuticals
- Information & Communications Technology (ICT)
- Manufacturing, Retail & Wholesale
- Population
- Real Estate, Building & Construction
- Trade
- Travel & Tourism

For each sector we have selected the most relevant indicators. The number of indicators varies from one sector to another and from country to country. AFED focuses on local sources and complements the data with carefully selected international ones to provide the highest data quality.

Data Consultancy

AFED's research team has considerable experience in sourcing hard to find information on Africa and will happily undertake bespoke research projects. We have recently completed tailored projects on Trade, Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) and other specific topics.

Delivery Mechanism
